

Task 3
	Criteria	Marks
4.1	Carry out community work to make a contribution to society	20
4.2	Use a method that is personally suitable to reflect on own experience while contributing to society	20
	Total	40

Rubric C
Marks	5 – 4	3 – 2	1 – 0
Aim	The aim presented is linked to the needs of society, and students refer to research to explain this need. Students also include a personal statement and mention values and beliefs or possible life experiences, that motivated this initiative.	The aim presented is linked to the needs of society. However, the students do not refer to research to highlight the need. They also do not include a personal statement that explains what motivated this initiative.	No valid reasons for the aim of the initiative are given.
Target Group	The target group chosen is linked to the needs of society. The students refer to research to explain why the target group was chosen. They also include a personal statement and mention values and beliefs or possible life experiences, that motivated this initiative towards the selected target group.	The target group chosen is linked to the needs of society. However, the students do not refer to research to highlight the need. They also do not include a personal statement that explains what motivated this initiative towards the target group.	No reasons surrounding the choice of target group are given.

Rubric C
Individual Critique – (10 marks)
Marks	2	2	2	2	2
Social Awareness
Individual Growth
Group Dynamic
Ability to criticise the initiative
Reflection on impact					